Product Filter

The export profile tab "Filter" is used to describe which products need to be included in the export profile. You can use it in multiple ways, add filtering for each supplier separately if you have multiple.

You can check our video about this feature: Wise2Sync - Products Filtering

Filtering can be used also for Repricing Rules or Dynamic Attributes therefore we have written a different page section on how to use rules builder.